President's Award

Andrew Mather was honoured tonight with Consult Australia prestigious President's Award for his dedication to "building a better world".

Presenting the award, Consult Australia President Rowenna Walker acknowledged Andrew's "immeasurable contribution" as a thought leader, mentor, advisor and champion of change.

Andrew was Consult Australia's National President from 2015 to 2017 and a member of the NSW committee from 2014 to 2022. He spent four years as a mentor for Consult Australia's FutureNet Business Leaders Program, was a member of the Champions of Change group, and is currently a national awards judge. An influential industry voice, Andrew is sought out by everyone from established leaders to rising stars.

"Over the last decade, Andrew has mentored dozens of future leaders, spoken at countless industry events and rolled up his sleeves whenever Consult Australia put out the call for help. This award honours his immeasurable contribution to building a better world."

Andrew, we salute you!
